Rules

ST PIRAN'S
CROSS
MULTI-ACADEMY TRUST

- ▶ While at camp we all have a duty to abide by the following rules and guidelines:
- ▶ Always follow your school's behaviour code at all times.
- ▶ NEVER leave the building or areas of learning.
- ▶ Don't damage the wild environment or pick flowers or plants.
- ▶ Keep the dorm and the camp area clean and tidy, put all litter into the bins provided.
- ▶ Never go into other dorms unless an adult has told you to.
- ▶ Always be ready to listen and follow instructions straight away.
- ▶ When it is time to go to sleep we must all be quiet and not disturb others.
- ▶ No shouting or loud sounds after bedtime.
- ▶ Be ready to help with tidying jobs.
- ▶ Respect the adults and children from the other schools

Camp Kernow – Year 3

- ▶ Camp Kernow is an award-winning organisation with an innovative off-grid environmental adventure centre dedicated to reconnecting and engaging children with the natural environment and inspiring them to live more sustainably

Camp Kernow – Year 3

- ▶ Over two hundred acres of woodland, streams, hedgerow organic farmland provide a haven for wildlife and an end for children to explore. A bespoke programme of activities will be developed for your group and will include a mix of the following:
- ▶ Exploratory: discovering the animals, habitats, eco-systems and natural resources around us through animal tracking, wild food foraging, firelighting & campfire cooking, shelter building, bat detecting.
- ▶ Physical– using our own energy or that of nature to experience exciting sports including archery, climbing, orienteering, technical tree climbing, power kiting, kayaking.
- ▶ Creative: reconnecting with traditional rural skills including willow weaving & sculpture, green woodworking, charcoal making, hand forging.
- ▶ Experimental: learning more about sustainability through hands-on experiences including wind turbine design, solar jiggling monster building, waste & worms workshop, wave energy device construction.

Camp Kernow – Year 3

- ▶ Food
- ▶ Children enjoy delicious home cooked food while at camp using ingredients harvested from our food garden or sourced from local (organic where possible) producers. Children are responsible for getting the food from field to fork, harvesting fruit and vegetables and helping to prepare meals in our well equipped field kitchen under the guidance and supervision of Camp Kernow staff.
- ▶ Accommodation
- ▶ Sleep in structures including a hand-built yurt, geodome, mongolian ger, tipi, traditional bell tent and even an upturned boat hull! All of the structures are situated on wooden decking and roll mats are provided so children are guaranteed a dry and warm night's sleep whatever the weather.
- ▶ Teachers can retire to the relative luxury of the teachers yurt!

Year 4 – Porthpean – Cornwall

Outdoors

- ▶ Porthpean Outdoor Education Centre is situated just outside of St Austell and enjoys spectacular views over and easy access too the sea and local countryside. Porthpean OE Centre provides more than just a summer camp as it is itself a centre of excellence for outdoor pursuits, open all year round, providing an excellent mobile outdoor activity service across Cornwall.

Outdoor Education Centres

The Outdoor Education Centres are managed by Cornwall Learning Outdoors, Cornwall Council.

Within the County, Cornwall Learning Outdoors operates seven residential Centres (*four of which are all canvas):

Carnyorth, Delaware, *Pelistry Camp

*Porthpean Roseland *Nine Ashes

*Tehidy Woods Camp

All the Centres offer excellent equipment and qualified instructors provide opportunities for developing a wide range of skills in a safe and enjoyable environment.

Provision is made at all the Centres for accessibility including access for wheelchair users to changing rooms, showers and toilets.

Porthpean – Year 4

- ▶ Accommodation tented villages
- ▶ Food cooked by staff on site

Year 5 London

- ▶ Hotel accommodation and trips to various attractions

Barton Hall, Devon – Year 6

- ▶ DVD to explain what is on offer – amazing!
