Dear Mr Lucas

I am writing so I can ask you to create a new Star Wars film. This may be quite easy for you because you own a film production company (which is named after you - which you definitely knew!) I know I would love having a new Star Wars - try to make it so it is not a 12 plus ; I am only 9.

A reason to make a new Star Wars film is that most boys and some girls love it. Also you will gain lots of money when you release your film to cinemas and when it goes onto DVD. More people want to watch new films and movies so it will sell lots of copies.

Because of the new Movie you are now (hopefully) creating, it might make Star Wars more popular than before. Also you can create background movies, like 'Rogue One' which was about how the Rebels claimed the plans for the Death Star.

If you are stuck for ideas then you can:

- Make a new Death Star
- Create a new 'Darth'
- Create a new Jedi

Yours Sincerely

Fraser Allan.
