

The reason why Mrs Weldon was late in class

At precisely the time the bell went off (at 12:59) Miss Eastham was crouching down - next to the tunnel. Mrs Weldon (after she had put Miss Eastham's class in line) went to see what was happening. Before her eyes two pupils (that were brothers) were squished together like a filling in a wrap. Unfortunately, Miss Eastham couldn't leave her class in the cold, bitter wind ; she took them in.

Whilst Miss Eastham led her class in, Mrs Weldon attempted to persuade the boys to get out of the tunnel (green matalic one). However as she was unsuccessful, Mrs Weldon - who was getting quite fed up - called for Mrs Warne.

With Mrs Warne's special magic, she raised her voice and bellowed "Come out now!" One of the mischievous boys got the message but the younger boy just stared into space; eventually he came out.
